Culture, Parks and Recreation Department Report (Andy McRoberts): Department is waiting for assessment findings and recommendations. Should have something to share in next meeting. Working on 2022 budget process including supplemental requests. Capital projects are being presented to City Manager's office to prepare for City Council.

Culture Division Report (Jason Evenson): Impressed with the Brown Bag presentation with George Junne. Also working on supplemental budgets for Museums, hoping for increase to 2019 levels. Multiple conversations regarding future management of White Plumb Farm happening.

Museums Report (Sarah Saxe): Final two candidates for Curator of Historical Sites position have been interviewed. Museum attendance is steadily increasing. All Facebook pages have been merged. First Museum at Twilight event was a success. Encouraged with feedback regarding later hours. Katie developed emergency training for employees including collection salvage kits as well as public safety.

Friends of the Greeley Museums Report (Laura Reeser): Potato Day will go forward on September 11th which will include Marine presentation. Previous attendance around 1200 participants. FOGM will also host an ice cream social on July 21st.

Public/Board Input - Committee Reports:

- Funding Team (Daina/Flo) – Working on fundraising ideas including potential sponsors. Will meet on July 22nd. Also hoping to meet with underrepresented organizations for contributions and collaboration. Emma suggested inviting people of color organizations to an event that will introduce them to the museums, and request feedback regarding representation.
- Experiences Team (Mark/Mike/George) – Planning for direction of future virtual programming. Making significant progress on Meeker Home virtual tour, scripts currently being edited. Background and supplemental images have already been uploaded. Stampede exhibit delayed for unknown amount of time due to issues within organization. Upcoming exhibits: League of Women Voters and Black & White in Black & White
- Acquisitions Committee (Ashley/Daniel) – discussed acceptance or decline of Greeley Tribune items being stored at High Plains Library. Will accept some bound newspapers, some as temporary custody. Will accept the images that have already been in possession as a loan. Will use funds from donations to the research center in Peggy Ford's memory to help hire new, temporary employee to process that collection. Received $500 grant to rehouse collection for posterity.
