Board Absent: Louisa Andersen, Michelle Booren, Benson Verbel.

Staff Present: Kim Snyder, Will Dillion, Brecklyn Everhart, Megan Weiler.

2. Motion to approve the September 2024 minutes made by Molly McIntosh and seconded by Tom Devore.

Motion passed unanimously.

3. Eddie Mirick has been reinstated to the Art Commission.

4. The Arts Picnic task force met and discussed the drawing for next year. Will presented an image that we could use to replace a poster in the Funplex with an interactive painting project to draw attention to the booth.

There was discussion about getting multiple banners and to try and get people to come visit the booth.

5. Eddie Mirick presented a letter and proposed for the letter to the Parks, and Natural Area and Trails Specialists where he expressed immense gratitude for the workers that maintain the Natural Areas and Open Spaces. He requested that the Art Commission endorse the letter.

Motion to endorse the letter for Parks, and Natural Area and Trails Specialists made by Tom Devore and seconded by Sharon Wright.

Motion passed unanimously.

6. Project Reports:

Redtail Park- Josh Bales should have the sculpture done by the end of the year. The park will not be done, but they are looking if they can install the sculpture, if not we will buy it and store the sculpture.

7. Maintenance & Repair:

Lisa would like to put fresh paint on the Go West art fence at Centennial Village and put a clear coat on the paintings along the fence as well. She will be getting a quote for that work soon.

Frank Garza removed graffiti and let Kim know that it is time to recoat the murals.

8. Other:

The call for artists is live asking for Exhibits in the Tointon Gallery. This has been posted to the public. We are looking locally first and then will post of Cafe if needed.

Meeting adjourned: 4:48 p.m.

Next meeting is schedule for November 19, 2024, at 4:00 p.m.
