Title: Adoption of 2025 TABOR Election Resolution

Summary:

The Residential West Greeley General Improvement District (RWGGID) was officially created by the Greeley City Council through the adoption of an ordinance at the August 19, 2025 City Council Meeting. Furthermore, the financial model for the West Greeley Project proposes that the RWGGID issue debt in 2026 to fund key infrastructure to support the first phase of development. To issue debt in 2026, the Colorado Taxpayer Bill of Rights (TABOR) requires that RWGGID electors must authorize debt and the assessment of taxes to repay any debt. The attached resolution is necessary to schedule a TABOR election on November 4, 2025.

The resolution contains several different ballot questions to authorize all of the potential uses of debt by the RWGGID. The total amount of debt proposed in the ballot questions is $2 Billion over time and the total maximum permissible mill levy, to be set annually by the RWGGID Board of Directors, is 20 mills. The financial model developed for the West Greeley Project suggests a much lower mill levy initially is actually needed to fund needed infrastructure in West Greeley.

Additionally, and at the request of the two property owners/electors in the RWGGID, the City staff intends to propose an ordinance for Greeley City Council's consideration that complements this resolution. The ordinance is intended to ensure that property owners and developers of property that wish to access and utilize infrastructure paid for by RWGGID participate in the district to cover each one's proportionate costs of such infrastructure. Initial discussion suggest that this ordinance would limit the annual mill levy to no more than 15 mills and establish other policy guidance to assure the district grows over time to fund all infrastructure necessary for the West Greeley area of the city to reach build-out.

Recommended Action: Approve the resolution.

Recommended Motion: Motion to Approve Resolution No. 1, Series 2025 Calling A Special Election In The City Of Greeley, Residential West Greeley General Improvement District; And Providing Other Details Relating Thereto.
